RULE 27

Recording steward

The recording steward shall after checking and confirming any errors with the judge, display each workers score in a prominent place. Under no circumstances can a competitor in a trial examine the score sheet of another competitor.

RULE 28

Control

From the time that a worker enters the trial arena until he has completed his run the judge shall be in control and his decision shall be final. Details of any action the judge may take as a result of any misdemeanour on the part of any person shall be reported to the trial committee as soon as practical.

RULE 29

Finals

If there is a final to be run by dogs selected by the judge he will give his awards to those gaining the highest number of aggregate points. At least one or more dog than the number of prizes offered shall be selected to compete in the final. There shall be no other dog elevated to the final if one of those selected is withdrawn.

RULE 30

Ties

In any open trial with a tied first placing there shall be a run off on the day of the event to determine the winner. Where circumstances prevent a run off on the day it shall be held at the first available opportunity.

RULE 31

Interference

If a dog strays onto the arena whilst a run is in progress or any other interference occurs, the competitor may request a re-run, the judges immediate decision shall be final. All re-runs will take place after the last dog had competed in that class. If at the time of the interference the competitor had lost sufficient point to put them out of the final, a re-run shall not be held.

RULE 32

Sheep

Three sheep shall be allocated to each dog.

RULE 33

Objections

From the time that the worker and dog are at the starting peg and the sheep have been released, and these sheep remain in the area, they shall be the sheep worked by that dog. Workers may object to any sheep as being physically defective before they leave the starting peg. The judges decision on the sheep is final, and they may order fresh sheep at any time during the run.

RULE 34

Finish of run

At the conclusion of each run, the worker shall take the sheep to a point indicated by the committee.

RULE 35

Dog under Control

The dog shall be released and under the control of the worker before the worker reaches the starting peg. The distance of control at the starting peg shall be 10 metres but not in front of the workers peg.

RULE 36

Time

The judge shall give a signal after the sheep are released and a bell will be rung to indicate that the time will start at this point. Each dog shall be allowed 15 minutes to complete the course or any such shorter time as the committee may publicise prior to the start of the trial.

RULE 37

Casting

The worker may cast his dog anytime after the bell has been sounded.

A dog leaving the peg before the bell must be recalled, failure to do so will result in disqualification.

RULE 38

Assistance

The worker shall not assist his dog in any way except by signal, whistle or word of mouth. Any stick the worker uses must not be more than 45 cm (18 inches) long, must be solid and any colour and without flaps. Any worker who by unfair action, sound or manoeuvre stops or turns the sheep or otherwise assists the dog shall have points deducted or at the discretion of the judge may be disqualified.

RULE 39

Collar

A standard dog collar worn around the neck is the only attachment allowed on a dog whilst it is working in a trial.

RULE 40

Crossing

Any dog that passes between the worker and one or more sheep at any time during the shall be disqualified, unless in the opinion of the judge the dog is forcing in a proper manner at the obstacle.

RULE 41

Cast

A perfect cast in the open is a semi-circle on stationary sheep. A dog taking up a commanding position behind the sheep a little to the opposite side from which he was cast is preferable. A dog stopping, and commencing the approach, before completing the semi-circle (sheep not having moved since the cast was commenced) should have points deducted. If sheep shows signs of moving, or does moves towards the side on which the dog was cast, the dog should stop and take command before getting behind, and steady the sheep back to the line of the straight pull. When sheep are against a fence or in an awkward position and the worker has to stop his dog in the cast, no points should be deducted. When cast is on the blind and the dog is diverting from the true course and he stops or is stopped and is re-directed, sheep unsighted, and he then makes a good cast from that position, no points should be deducted. In any trial if a dog fails at his first attempt to sight the sheep, he may be recalled, redirected and penalised accordingly.

RULE 42

Approach

On completion of the cast, the dog should steady or stop, and approach the sheep very steadily, deliberate in his actions, and take command of the sheep.

RULE 43

Lift

After completing his approach the dog should lift or move the sheep in a quiet, steady and commanding way.

RULE 44

Pull

The sheep should be brought to the worker at a steady pace. If the sheep are diverting from the straight course, the dog should be on the wing to steady the sheep back to the true course. If the sheep make a big break to one side and then the dog gets them under control then a new line of course is established. If the sheep gallop down the course and the dog lifted steadily, no points shall be deducted. Special attention should be paid to the temperament of the sheep.

RULE 45

Starting

The sheep shall be brought around the starting peg on the workers left hand to a point on the workers right hand which is indicated by a balance peg directly behind the worker. Sheep coming in on the right hand side must be "unwound" once only.

RULE 46

Worker

If the worker fails to move at an even pace and in a direct line between pegs and obstacles without stopping he shall have points deducted.

RULE 47

Course Work

Sheep must pass each obstacle to the right of the workers ring or peg facing away from the obstacle, failure to do so means the sheep are off course and points will be deducted. If any of the sheep have entered or negotiated an obstacle before the worker is on his peg or ring, all sheep must be put through again. If the worker leaves his peg before all sheep have negotiated an obstacle he shall be disqualified.

RULE 48

Obstacles

Except under exceptional circumstances, obstacles should be negotiated without passing the wings. The judge at his discretion need not disqualify a dog getting between the sheep and the worker, provided the dog is forcing in a proper manner at an obstacle. In field trials when negotiating obstacles other than the bridge and pen if a dog is brought between the worker and the sheep, this does not constitute crossing. This also applies in an arena where Payne trial obstacles are being used.

RULE 49

Bell

The bell shall be rung to notify any disqualification and also the time expiry of each run. At the conclusion of the run each worker must take the sheep to a place as directed by the committee.

RULE 50

Sheep Escape

If any of the sheep escape whilst being worked on the course, the run may be terminated at the judges discretion.

RULE 51

Biting

If a dog should bite any of the sheep except in self defence, or otherwise injure a sheep, then that dog shall at the discretion of the judge be disqualified, and the worker held responsible for any damage caused to the sheep. If a sheep charges the dog and the dog then snaps at or nips the sheep, no points need to be deducted and the dog should not be disqualified.

RULE 52

Inferior Work

The judge shall disqualify any dog if he considers the work of the dog is of an inferior standard.

RULE 53

Style

Dogs should at all times maintain an interest in their work and have full control of the sheep they are working. Deliberately looking away from the sheep is lacking in style, however a glance to the right or left is permissible. Turning tail to the sheep is generally considered a fault, but there are occasions when, in quick movements, ground may be gained instead of lost, and allowances should be made on such occasions.

RULE 54

Time

No decisions should be given on time, a stated time being allowed to complete the course. The maximum time allowed for competitors will be fixed by the committee prior to the start of the trial. Any worker withdrawing his dog before the expiry of the full time allowed, unless at the discretion of the judge shall not be awarded any points.

RULE 55

Points Deduction

When deducting points judges are not restricted to a maximum under any one heading. No points shall be deducted other than those lost during the run. To determine the total number of points lost during a run, the judge shall add the points lost during that part of the trial that the dog completed to the points allotted to the uncompleted sections of the round.

RULE 56

Judges place

Whilst judging the judge should ensure that he does not interfere with the working of the dog.

RULE 57

The Tasmanian Working Sheepdog Association Trial year commences 01 July and ends 30 June each year.

RULE 58

Consistency Awards scoring system are:-

1st 9 points, 2nd 6 points, 3rd 3 points.

RULE 59

Open judges individual dogs "Average" consistency score is to be calculated at the season conclusion of all registered Open trials and added to the actual consistency score of every dog each judge has competed with.

Average to be calculated by dividing the number of points earned by the dog, by the number of registered Open trials in the season. Should a judge, judge a second trial his or her average score is to be added to his or her actual dog score twice.'

For example:

Judge 1. Has a score of 24 points with a particular dog. There are 18 registered Open trials in the season and the judge has Judged one trial.

$24/18 = 1.33$ Total = 25.33 points

Judge 2. Has a score of 24 points with a particular dog. There are 18 registered trials in the season and the Judge has judged two trials.

$24/18 = 1.33 \times 2$ Total = 26.66 points
