ACCOMODATION OPTIONS FOR SUPREME AUSTRALIAN SHEEPDOG CHAMPIONSHIP

CAMPBELL TOWN

Limited powered and unpowered campsites are available at the Campbell Town Showgrounds, to be booked on entry form. The showgrounds are close to the venue and within easy walking distance. There are new toilet facilities but only one shower. There are more than adequate showers at the venue being modern football clubrooms.

Ross Caravan Park. <https://rosscaravanpark.com.au/ross-caravan-park/>

Ross Caravan Park is located in the Heritage Village of Ross Tasmania. It is a fantastic destination half way between Launceston and Hobart for Caravans, Campers and Tourists wanting to soak up a little bit of history. They offer powered and unpowered caravan and tent sites. They also offer Heritage Listed Cabins that have a charm of their own which are nestled beside the Macquarie River. A free BBQ area and a coin operated laundry is available. Full amenities including male and female showers and toilets are available which include Accessibility facilities. Its situated 11.2 km or 12 minutes from the venue.

Contact Justin PINNER for further information.

EXERCISING OF DOGS. Any dog on the grounds, including the camping grounds and showground must be cleaned up after, without exception. There will be exercise paddocks arranged locally and within close proximity. Further details will be posted prior to the event.

About Campbell Town .

Campbell Town is a 45min drive (68km) south of Launceston, and a 1hr 40min drive (133km) north of Hobart. It's basically the half way stop for Tasmanians between the two major cities. It has numerous food options including bakeries, restaurants and cafes. There is ample local shopping for antiques and leather crafts etc and an IGA for all grocery needs. Campbell Town and the surrounding district have a rich culture history including historical properties and buildings, convict brick trail and the red bridge.
